1. The Applicant submitted an application dated 2 November 2023 in terms of Rule 65 of the Rules. In support of the application, the Applicant submitted an

DECISION

2. The Legal Member considered the application in terms of Rule 8 of the Chamber Procedural Rules. That Rule provides:-

Rejection of application

8.—(1) The Chamber President or another member of the First-tier Tribunal under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, must reject an application if—

(a) they consider that the application is frivolous or vexatious;

(b) the dispute to which the application relates has been resolved;

(c) they have good reason to believe that it would not be appropriate to accept the application;

(d) they consider that the application is being made for a purpose other than a purpose specified in the application; or

(e) the applicant has previously made an identical or substantially similar application and in the opinion of the Chamber President or another member of the First-tier Tribunal, under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, there has been no significant change in any material considerations since the identical or substantially similar application was determined.

(2) Where the Chamber President, or another member of the First-tier Tribunal, under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, makes a decision under paragraph (1) to reject an application the First-tier Tribunal must notify the applicant and the notification must state the reason for the decision.

- 3. After consideration of the application and the documents submitted by the Applicant in support of same, the Legal Member considers that the application should be rejected on the basis that it is frivolous within the meaning of Rule 8(1)(a) of the Rules.

Reasons for Decision

4. 'Frivolous' in the context of legal proceedings is defined by Lord Justice Bingham in R v North West Suffolk (Mildenhall) Magistrates Court, (1998) Env LR9. He indicated at page 16 of the judgment; "What the expression means in this context is, in my view, that the court considers the application to be futile, misconceived, hopeless or academic". It is that definition which the Legal Member has considered as the test in this application, and on consideration of this test, the Legal Member considers that this application is frivolous, misconceived and has no prospect of success.
5. The Tribunal sent an email to the Applicant on 29 November 2023 requesting further information. The Tribunal also advised that the form AT6 appeared to be invalid. The Applicant responded by email on 5, 8 and 20 December 2023. The Applicant advised that a new form AT6 was served on the Respondent by sheriff officers.
6. On 9 January 2024, the Tribunal issued an email to the Applicant advising that the new AT6 form served cannot be relied upon in relation to the present application because it was served after the application was submitted. The Tribunal suggested that the Applicant could withdraw the present application and submit a new application on the basis of the new AT6. A reply to this email was requested by 23 January 2024. The Applicant was advised that if no response was received, the President may decide to reject the application.

7. Rule 5 of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Housing and Property Chamber (Procedure) Regulations 2017 (“the Rules”) sets out the requirements of making an application. In terms of that Rule, the Chamber President or another member with delegated powers of the Chamber President may request further documents. The Rule provides that an application is not accepted where the outstanding documents requested are not received within a reasonable period.
8. The Applicant has been given an opportunity to provide a response and has failed to do so. The Legal Member therefore determines that the application is frivolous, misconceived and has no prospect of success. The application is rejected on that basis.
