

DECISION AND STATEMENT OF REASONS OF JOSEPHINE BONNAR, LEGAL MEMBER OF THE FIRST-TIER TRIBUNAL WITH DELEGATED POWERS OF THE CHAMBER PRESIDENT

Under Rule 8 of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Housing and Property Chamber Rules of Procedure 2017 ("the Rules")

in connection with

Flat 3/1 10 Forbes Place, Paisley, Renfrewshire, PA1 1UT ("the property")

Case Reference: FTS/HPC/EV/19/2699

Jim Cahill, 1 Woodside, West Kilbride, North Ayrshire KA23 9JB ("the Applicant")

Michael Flynn, Flat 3/1 10 Forbes Place, paisley, Renfrewshire, PA1 1UT ("the Respondent")

1. By application dated 7 August 2019 the Applicant seeks an order for recovery of possession of the property in terms of Rule 66 of the Rules. The Applicant lodged a number of documents in support of the application including copy tenancy agreement, AT6 Notice and Notice to Quit. In terms of the application the Applicant seeks an order for possession of the property on ground 6 of Schedule 5 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 1988 ("the 1988 Act").

DECISION

2. The Legal Member considered the application in terms of Rule 8 of the Chamber Procedural Rules. That Rule provides:-

"Rejection of application"

8.—(1) The Chamber President or another member of the First-tier Tribunal under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, must reject an application if—

(a) they consider that the application is frivolous or vexatious;

(b) the dispute to which the application relates has been resolved;

(c) they have good reason to believe that it would not be appropriate to accept the application;

(d) they consider that the application is being made for a purpose other than a purpose specified in the application; or

(e) the applicant has previously made an identical or substantially similar application and in the opinion of the Chamber President or another member of the First-tier Tribunal, under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, there has been no significant change in any material considerations since the identical or substantially similar application was determined.

(2) Where the Chamber President, or another member of the First-tier Tribunal, under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, makes a decision under paragraph (1) to reject an application the First-tier Tribunal must notify the applicant and the notification must state the reason for the decision.”

- 3. After consideration of the application and documents lodged in support of same the Legal Member considers that the application should be rejected on the basis that it is frivolous within the meaning of Rule 8(1)(a) of the Procedural Rules.

Reasons for Decision

4. 'Frivolous' in the context of legal proceedings is defined by Lord Justice Bingham in R v North West Suffolk (Mildenhall) Magistrates Court, (1998) Env LR9. He indicated at page 16 of the judgment; "What the expression means in this context is, in my view, that the court considers the application to be futile, misconceived, hopeless or academic". It is that definition which the Legal Member has considered as the test in this application, and on consideration of this test, the Legal Member considers that this application is frivolous, misconceived and has no prospect of success.

5. The application lodged with the Tribunal seeks recovery of possession of an assured tenancy on the basis of ground 6 of Schedule 5 of the 1988 Act. The Applicant has not served a valid Notice to Quit on the Respondent terminating the tenancy contract. Section 112(1) of the Rent (Scotland) Act 1984 (“the 1984 Act”) states “No notice by a landlord or a tenant to quit any premises let as a dwellinghouse shall be valid unless it is in writing and contains such information as may be prescribed and is given not less than four weeks before the date on which it is to take effect.” A Notice to Quit must take effect on an ish date of the tenancy. The Notice submitted states that the date upon which the tenant is required to vacate the property is 22 September 2019. The term of the tenancy stated in the agreement which has been lodged is 8 March 2008 for an initial period of 6 months and thereafter on a month to month basis. The Notice to Quit served on the Respondent purports to terminate the tenancy contract on 22 September 2019 which is not an ish date of the tenancy. As a result the Notice is invalid and the tenancy contract has not been terminated.
6. The Legal Member proceeded to consider the AT6 Notice which has been lodged with the application and whether the application can be considered in terms of Section 18(6) of the Act. This states “The first tier Tribunal shall not make an order for possession of a house which is for the time being let on an assured tenancy, not being a statutory assured tenancy, unless – (a) the ground for possession is ground 2 or ground 8 in Part 1 of Schedule 5 to the Act or any of the grounds in Part II of that schedule, other than ground 9, ground 10, ground 15 or ground 17; and (b) the terms of the tenancy make provision for it to be brought to an end on the ground in question”. The copy tenancy agreement which is lodged with the application does not specify the grounds for recovery of possession upon which the Applicant seeks to rely. In any event, ground 6 is not one of the grounds identified in Section 18(6)(a). As a result the Applicant is unable to rely on the provisions of this section. In order to raise proceedings for recovery of the property the Applicant must first bring the contractual tenancy to an end. The Notice to Quit which has been lodged is invalid and does not bring the contractual tenancy to an end. Accordingly, the Applicant has not complied with the requirements of the legislation.
7. The Legal member therefore concludes that the application is frivolous, misconceived and has no prospect of success. The application is rejected on that basis.

What you should do now

If you accept the Legal Member's decision, there is no need to reply.

If you disagree with this decision –

An applicant aggrieved by the decision of the Chamber President, or any Legal Member acting under delegated powers, may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them. Information about the appeal procedure can be forwarded to you on request.
