Under Rule 8 of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Housing and Property
Chamber Rules of Procedure 2017 ("the Procedural Rules")

in connection with

Case reference FTS/HPC/EV/22/2181

Parties

Karen Williamson (Applicant)

Krzysztof Kaczowka, Natalia Kaczowka (Respondent)

Macnabs LLP (Applicant's Representative)

33 Culliven Court, Perth, PH1 2PY (House)

1. The application was made under Rule 109 of the Procedural Rules being an application for an eviction order in connection with a private residential tenancy. The application was accompanied by supporting documentation
2. By way of letter and email dated 29 July 2022, a request for further information was sent to the Applicant.
3. No substantive response was received from the Applicant to the request dated 29 July 2022. A second request for the further information was sent to the applicant by way of email dated 20 September 2022. This request also advised that the application may be rejected should the information not be provided.

DECISION

4. The circumstances in which an application is to be rejected are governed by Rule 8 of the Chamber Procedural Rules. That Rule provides:-

"Rejection of application

8.—(1) The Chamber President or another member of the First-tier Tribunal under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, must reject an application if –

- (a) they consider that the application is frivolous or vexatious;*
- (b) the dispute to which the application relates has been resolved;*
- (c) they have good reason to believe that it would not be appropriate to accept the application;*
- (d) they consider that the application is being made for a purpose other than a purpose specified in the application; or*
- (e) the applicant has previously made an identical or substantially similar application and in the opinion of the Chamber President or another member of the First-tier Tribunal, under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, there has been no significant change in any material considerations since the identical or substantially similar application was determined.*

(2) Where the Chamber President, or another member of the First-tier Tribunal, under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, makes a decision under paragraph (1) to reject an application the First-tier Tribunal must notify the applicant and the notification must state the reason for the decision."

- 5. After consideration of the application, the further information referred to and the lack of correspondence from the Applicant or the Applicant's agent, the Legal Member considers that the application should be rejected on the basis that it would not be appropriate to accept the application within the meaning of Rule 8(1)(c) of the Procedural Rules.

REASONS FOR DECISION

6. Two requests were made for further information from the Applicant. This additional information requested was necessary to allow the application to proceed. The applicant was informed that the additional information was essential to allow further progress of the application and was warned that failure to respond may lead to the application being rejected. In the absence of any response by the Applicant, it would not be appropriate to accept the application and accordingly it is rejected
