

Decision with Statement of Reasons of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) under Rule 26 of The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Housing and Property Chamber (Procedure) Regulations 2017.

Case reference FTS/HPC/RP/23/4383

Parties

Mr Jamie Doig (Applicant)

Mr John Leith (Respondent)

551 Great Western Road, 2nd Floor Right, Aberdeen, AB10 6PE (House)

Tribunal Member: Jacqui Taylor (Legal Member)

The Tribunal rejects the application by the Applicant dated 1st December 2023 being an application under section 22(1) of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2006 requesting the Tribunal to determine if the property complies with the Repairing Standard.

The Tribunal Administration sent letters/ emails to the Applicant dated 11th January 2024 and 26th January 2024 requesting further information to enable the Tribunal to proceed with the application. No response was received and the required documents were not provided.

The email from the Tribunal Administration to the Applicant dated 26th January 2024 also explained that if the Tribunal do not receive the information requested by 2nd February 2024 the President may decide to reject the application. As no response has been received to the said letters/ emails dated 11th January 2024 and 26th January 2024 and the required documents have not been provided the Tribunal believe that the dispute has been resolved and reject the application in terms of rule 8(10(b) of the Tribunal Rules.

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them
