NOTICE TO THE PARTIES

Whereas in terms of their decision dated 27th January 2025, the Tribunal decided that the Factor had failed to comply with sections 2.7 and 6.6 of the 2021 Code of Conduct, all as stated in the said decision, the Tribunal propose to make a property factor enforcement order in the following terms:

"The Factor must pay the homeowner £250 for the stress and inconvenience he had suffered and for their contribution to causing the IKO guarantee to be invalidated, from their own funds and at no cost to the owners. The said sums to be paid within 28 days of the communication to the Factor of the Property Factor Enforcement Order".

This intimation of the Tribunal's Decision and this Notice to make a Property Factor Enforcement Order to the parties should be taken as notice for the purposes of section 19(2)(a) of the Act and parties are hereby given notice that they should ensure that any written representations which they wish to make under section 19(2)(b) of the Act reach the Housing and Property Chamber's office by no later than 14 days after the date that the Decision and this notice is intimated to them. If no representations are received within that timescale then the Tribunal is likely to proceed to make a Property Factor Enforcement Order (PFEO) without seeking further representations from the parties.

Failure to comply with a PFEO may have serious consequences and constitute an offence.

Appeals

A party aggrieved by the decision of the tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.
