

Decision with Statement of Reasons of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) under Section 51 of the Private Housing (Tenancies) (Scotland) Act 2016

Chamber Ref: FTS/HPC/EV/24/3193

Re: Property at 87 Sighthill Loan, Edinburgh, EH11 4NT (“the Property”)

Parties:

Mrs Alison Waldie, 18 Cherry Tree Place, Currie, Edinburgh, EH14 5AS (“the Applicant”)

Ms Anne-Marie Brown, Shaun Patterson, 87 Sighthill Loan, Edinburgh, EH11 4NT (“the Respondents”)

Tribunal Members:

Nairn Young (Legal Member) and Eileen Shand (Ordinary Member)

Decision (in absence of the Respondents)

The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) (“the Tribunal”) determined that

- Background

This is an application for an eviction order against the Respondents, who occupy the Property in terms of a private residential tenancy agreement with the Applicant. It called for case management discussion (‘CMD’) at 10:00am on 24 March 2025, by teleconference. The Applicant was represented on the call by Mrs Claire Burnett and Ms Lucy Cant. The Respondents were not on the call or represented. The commencement of the CMD was delayed by 10 minutes in case they were experiencing any technical difficulty; but there remained no contact from them.

The application and notice of the CMD were served on the Respondents by sheriff officers on 11 February 2025. The Tribunal was therefore satisfied that they were aware of the CMD and had chosen not to oppose the application.

- Findings in Fact

The Tribunal considered the following unopposed facts as relevant to its decision:

1. The Applicant lets the Property to the Respondent in terms of a private residential tenancy agreement with a start date of 10 April 2024.
2. On 12 April 2024, the Applicant emailed a notice to leave to the Respondent, via her agents, stating that she would rely on Ground 1 of Schedule 3 to the Private Housing (Tenancies) (Scotland) Act 2016 ('the Act') in any application to the Tribunal to follow.
3. The Applicant is the owner of the Property.
4. The Applicant intends to sell the Property for market value, or at least put it up for sale, as soon as the Respondents cease to occupy it.

- Reasons for Decision

5. Ground 1 is established here and, in particular, it is reasonable for the order to be granted. The Respondents have not opposed the application and there is no information before the Tribunal to suggest it is not reasonable to grant the eviction order. On that basis, given the Applicant is the owner of the Property and wishes to sell it, it is reasonable to grant the order to allow this.

- Decision

Eviction order granted.

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.
