

Decision with Statement of Reasons of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) under Section 51 of the Private Housing (Tenancies) (Scotland) Act 2016

Chamber Ref: FTS/HPC/EV/24/4485

Re: Property at 20 Elizabeth Street, Dunfermline, KY11 4AY (“the Property”)

Parties:

AM Property Invest Ltd, 4 Wangey Road, Romford, Essex, RM6 4DD (“the Applicant”)

Mr Peter Smith, 20 Elizabeth Street, Dunfermline, KY11 4AY (“the Respondent”)

Tribunal Members:

Nairn Young (Legal Member) and Jane Heppenstall (Ordinary Member)

Decision (in absence of the Respondent)

The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) (“the Tribunal”) determined that

- Background

This is an application for an eviction order against the Respondent, who occupies the Property in terms of a private residential tenancy agreement with the Applicant. It called for case management discussion (‘CMD’) at 10am on 1 July 2025, by teleconference. The Applicant was represented on the call by Mr Adil, one of its directors, and by Mr Gallagher, of Kee Solicitors. The Respondent was not on the call or represented. The commencement of the CMD was delayed by 10 minutes in case he was experiencing any technical difficulty; but there remained no contact from him.

Notice of the application and the CMD was served on the Respondent by sheriff officers on 1 April 2025. The Tribunal therefore considered that he was aware of the CMD and had chosen not to enter opposition; and that it was fair to proceed in his absence.

- Findings in Fact

The Tribunal considered the following unopposed facts as relevant to its decision:

1. The Applicant lets the Property to the Respondent in terms of a private residential tenancy agreement with a start date of 1 December 2021. The Applicant acceded to the landlord's interest in the tenancy on its purchase of the Property on 10 November 2024.
2. The Property requires to be fully refurbished and the Applicant intends to carry this work out.
3. The extent of the work required renders it impractical for the Respondent to remain in the Property during the period it is being carried out. The works is forecast to take up to 3 months to be completed.
4. Thereafter, the Applicant intends to put the Property up for sale.
5. On 1 May 2024, sheriff officers delivered the Respondent a notice to leave from the Applicant, stating that it would rely on Grounds 1 and 3 of Schedule 3 to the Private Housing (Tenancies) (Scotland) Act 2016 ('the Act') in any application to the Tribunal to follow.

- Reasons for Decision

6. On the basis of the facts as above, the Tribunal considered that Grounds 1 and 3 of Schedule 3 to the Act were satisfied. The Applicant has established that it has the relevant intentions to support these grounds and there had been no information presented to the Tribunal in the part of the Respondent to suggest that it would be unreasonable to grant the order on that basis.

- Decision

Eviction order granted.

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.
