Decision (in absence of the Respondent)

The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) (“the Tribunal”) determined that the Applicant was entitled to an order for payment by the Respondent to the Applicant in the sum of £1941.92.

Background

1. By application dated 26 March 2025 the Applicant’s representatives, Belvoir Dundee, applied to the Tribunal for an order for payment in respect of alleged rent arrears arising from the Respondent’s tenancy of the property. The Applicant’s representatives submitted a copy of the tenancy agreement together with a rent statement in support of the application.
2. As the Applicant’s representatives had been unable to trace the current whereabouts of the Respondent, they also submitted an application to the Tribunal for Service of the Application on the Respondent by way of Advertisement on the Housing and Property Chamber website.

3. By Notice of Acceptance dated 14 April 2025 a legal member of the Tribunal with delegated powers accepted the application and a Case Management Discussion (“CMD”) was assigned.
4. Service on the Respondent was by Advertisement on the Housing and Property Chamber website between 21 August 2025 and 1 October 2025, conform to Certificate of Service dated 1 October 2025.

The Case Management Discussion

5. A CMD was held by teleconference on 1 October 2025. The Applicant was represented by Miss Aimi Lewis from the Applicant’s representatives. The Respondent did not attend nor was he represented. The Tribunal being satisfied that proper intimation had been given to the Respondent determined to proceed in his absence.
6. Miss Lewis advised the Tribunal that the rent arrears amounted to £1941.92 after reimbursement of the Respondent’s deposit and asked the Tribunal to grant an order for payment in that amount.

Findings in Fact

7. The Respondent owed rent at the end of the tenancy of £1941.92 and this amount was still outstanding at the date of the CMD.

Reasons for Decision

8. The Tribunal was satisfied from the written representations and documents submitted by the Applicant’s representatives together with the oral submissions that the Applicant was entitled to an order for payment by the Respondent in the sum of £1941.92.

Decision

9. The Tribunal finds the applicant entitled to an order for payment by the Respondent to the Applicant in the sum of £1941.92.

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.
