Decision with Statement of Reasons of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) under Section 33 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 1988

Reference number: FTS/HPC/EV/25/1540

Order granted on 28 November 2025 in absence of the Respondent

Property: 24 Kirkland Park, Ballingry, Lochgelly, Fife, KY5 8PR

Parties:

Mrs Angela Copeland, residing at 54 Beech Crescent, Rosyth, Fife, KY11 2ZP ("the Applicant")

Mr John Gilfillan, residing at 24 Kirkland Park, Ballingry, Lochgelly, Fife, KY5 8PR ("the Respondent")

Decision (in absence of the Respondent)

The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) ("the Tribunal") makes an order for possession of the Property in terms of section 33 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 1988.

Background

The Applicant sought recovery of possession of the Property in terms of Section 33 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 1988 ("the 1988 Act"). The Applicant had lodged with the Tribunal Form E. The documents produced were a Tenancy Agreement, a Notice to Quit and s.33 notice, both served on 28 January 2025, together with a notice under s.11 of the Homelessness (Scotland) Act 2003. A copy land certificate was lodged with the Tribunal which showed that the applicant is heritable proprietor of the Property.

Case Management Discussion

A case management discussion took place by telephone conference at 10am on 28 November 2025. The Applicant was represented by Mr R McCran of Malcolm Jack & Matheson, solicitors. The hearing was delayed until 10.08am to allow sufficient time for the respondent to participate, but there was no appearance by or on behalf of the Respondent.

Findings in Fact

The Tribunal made the following findings in fact:

- 1. The Applicant and the Respondent entered into a short-assured tenancy Agreement for the Property dated 01/08/2016. The lease initially ran from 01/08/2016 to 02/02/2017.
- 2. The Tenancy Agreement set out the grounds on which the Landlord could seek recovery of possession of the Property in terms of Schedule 5 of the 1988 Act.
- 3. A notice to quit and a s.33 notice were served on the Respondent on 28/01/2025. The tenancy is a short-assured tenancy and the Respondent received the notice to quit and the s.33 notice timeously. The s.33 notice brought the tenancy to an end on 02/04/2025.
- 4. The Applicant sought recovery of possession of the Property in terms of s.33 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 1988 because the short-assured tenancy had been brought to an end on 02/04/2025 by the service of the s.33 notice.
- 5. The Respondent remains in the property. He has chosen not to provide any of his details to the tribunal. There are no known delays or failures in the payment of benefits, and the landlord has complied with the pre-action protocol prescribed by the Scottish Ministers.
- 6. Sheriff Officers served notice of today's hearing on the respondent on 16/10/2025. The Respondent offers no resistance to this application.

Reasons for the Decision

The Tribunal determined to make an Order for possession of the Property in terms of Section 33 of the 1988 Act. The tenancy was a short-assured tenancy. Correct notice was given which brought the short-assured tenancy to an end on 02/04/2025. The basis for possession set out in s.33 of the 1988 Act is established. The Respondent does not resist the application. The finite time for occupancy of the property as a short-assured tenancy has come to an end. For these reasons, the Tribunal determined to grant an Order for possession.

Decision

For the foregoing reasons, the Tribunal determined to make an Order for possession.

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.
