Decision

The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) (“the Tribunal”) decided to dismiss the Application in terms of Rule 27 (2) (b) of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Housing and Property Chamber Rules of Procedure 2017 (“the 2017 Rules”)

Background, Case Management Discussion and Reasons for Decision

- 1. This Application, contained in papers lodged with the Tribunal, was brought in terms of Rule 109 (Application for an eviction order) of The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Housing and Property Chamber Rules of Procedure 2017 (“the 2017 Rules”).
- 2. A Case Management Discussion (“CMD”) proceeded remotely by telephone conference call at 10am on 12th February 2026. The Applicants and the Respondent did not attend. No representatives attended. The Tribunal noted that the details of the CMD had been sent by email to the Applicants' Representative on 18th December 2025. The Tribunal also noted that Sheriff Officers served the Application papers, and notification of the CMD on the Respondent by posting relevant papers through the letterbox at the Property on 19th December 2025.

- 3. Rule 27 (2) (b) of the 2017 Rules provides that the Tribunal may dismiss the whole or part of the proceedings if an Applicant or Applicants has/have failed to co-operate with the Tribunal to the extent that the Tribunal cannot deal with the proceedings justly and fairly.
- 4. The Applicants and their Representative did not attend at the CMD today. They have not made any contact with the Tribunal's office in advance of the CMD to intimate that they would, or could, not attend. In the circumstances the Tribunal decided that the Applicants have not co-operated with the Tribunal to the extent that they cannot deal with the Application justly and fairly. Accordingly, the Tribunal has determined to dismiss the Application in terms of Rule 27 (2) (b) of the 2017 Rules.

Outcome

- 5. The Tribunal dismisses the Application

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.
