Mr Graham Duff, 15 Littlejohn Street, Stirling, FK8 1ZG (“the Applicant”)

Mr Alexander Ian Babiak, D 29 Borestone Crescent, Stirling, FK7 9BQ (“the Respondent”)

Decision (in absence of the Respondent)

The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) (“the Tribunal”) determined that the application be decided without a hearing and issued an order for payment should be granted in the sum of £7,945.

1) Background

- 1.1 This is an Rule 111 application whereby the Applicant was seeking an order for payment in the sum of £3,745 which had increased to £7,945 at the Tribunal date together with interest at the rate of 8% per annum. The Application was conjoined with an application seeking an order for eviction under reference FTTS/HPC/EV/25/5117
- 1.2 The application to the Tribunal was made by Form F on 26th November 2025 and was accepted for determination by the Tribunal on 9 March 2026.
- 1.3 Intimation of the application and of the Initial Case Management Discussion (CMD) was effected upon the Respondent by sheriff officers on 29 April 2026.

2) The Case Management Discussion

- 2.1 The CMD took place by tele conference on 4 June 2026 at 10am. The Applicant was represented by Ms Anderson of Clarity Simplicity. The Respondent did not take part. The start of the CMD was delayed to allow the Respondent to attend. The Respondent did not attend.
- 2.2 Ms Anderson confirmed that the property is D 29 Borestone Crescent, Stirling, FK7 9BQ
- 2.3 Ms Anderson confirmed that the parties entered into a Private Residential Tenancy which commenced on 19 August 2022 at a monthly rent of £600.
- 2.4 At the time of making the application the rent arrears were £3,745. The amount of arrears outstanding at the date of the Tribunal was £7,945.
- 2.5 Ms Anderson provided a current rent statement showing an increase in the amount of arrears to £7,945. The Tribunal noted that no rent had been paid by the Respondent since payment of £5 on 26 August 2025. The rent has been in arrears since 3rd January 2025.
- 2.6 Ms Anderson was able to talk about the personal circumstances of the Applicant and the Respondent. She was unable to confirm the age of the Respondent. She understood the Respondent was single and lived alone. The Respondent had made the landlord aware in January 2025 that he had lost his job and then subsequently advised the Applicant that he had secured employment and would commence payment of rent. The Applicant has attempted to visit the property. The Applicant's agent had written on behalf of the Applicant in November 2025, again on 28 May 2026, on 1 June 2026 bringing the arrears of rent to the Respondent's attention and in an effort to engage with the Respondent. The Respondent has not communicated with the Applicant. The Applicant attempted an inspection over the weekend of 29 and 30 May 2026. It appeared to the Applicant that the property was empty and had been vacated. The keys have not been returned. By viewing through the window the Applicant noticed numerous alcohol bottles and drug paraphernalia.
- 2.7 The Applicant's agent was not aware of the Respondent having any disability issues which would prevent communication. The Applicant had been advised by the Respondent in early 2025 that having lost his job he had obtained alternative employment but nonetheless the rent had not been paid.
- 2.8 The landlord's circumstances are that the property is the landlord's only tenanted property. The subjects are burdened by a mortgage. The landlord is having to use savings to maintain mortgage payments in the absence of payment of rent. The absence of payment of rent is having a detrimental effect on the Applicant's financial position.

- 2.9. Rule 17 of the First-Tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) (Procedure) Regulations 2017 provides that the Tribunal may do anything at a CMB which it may do at a hearing, including making a decision. The Tribunal was satisfied that it had before it sufficient information and documentation to decide the application without a hearing.

3) Findings in Fact and Law

- 3.1 The Applicants and the Respondent entered into a Private Residential Tenancy Agreement in respect of the property which commenced on 19th August 2022.
- 3.2 The monthly rent due under the Private Residential Tenancy is £600 per month.
- 3.3 The rent arrears due as at the date of the Notice to Leave was £2,545.
- 3.4 The rent arrears due as at the date of the hearing is £7,945.
- 3.5 The Respondent has been in arrears of rent since 3rd January 2025.
- 3.6 The Applicant is entitled to recover rent lawfully due
- 3.7 The application of interest is not reflected in the Private Residential Tenancy Agreement

4) Reason for Decision

- 4.1 Rent lawfully due is outstanding. The Applicant is entitled to recover rent lawfully due.

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.
