Case Management Discussion (“CMD”)

3. A CMD took place before the Tribunal on 3 February 2026 by teleconference. Reference is made to the Note of the CMD. The outcome was that an evidential hearing was fixed to take place on 17 June 2026. The Tribunal issued a Direction dated 3 February 2026 in the following terms :

5. On 11 May 2026 the Tribunal sent a letter the Respondent in the following terms : "An evidential Hearing has been fixed to take place in this case on 17 June 2026. The Tribunal issued a direction dated 3 February 2026. Copy attached. The Respondent was to lodge a response by 7 April 2026. No response has been received. Please lodge a response within the next 7 days. Alternatively, if the Respondent is no longer insisting on a defence to the application, please advise within the next 7 days." No response was received.

Hearing

6. A Hearing took place at Stranraer Sheriff Court on 17 June 2026. Mr and Mrs McGarva were both in attendance and were represented by Sarah Powell of the Applicant's Representative. The Respondent was not in attendance.
7. The Applicant told the Tribunal that after the CMD they sent a letter to the Respondent by recorded delivery post asking him to specify what repairs may be required at the Property. They said they noted the repairs referred to at the CMD and sent a contractor, Russell Whitehall, to the Property to assess what needed done. They said Mr Whitehall then liaised with the Respondent regarding works to be carried out. They referred to the written submission lodged which contained invoices for works carried out as well as photographs. They said work was carried out to the skirting boards, gutters, kitchen and bathroom. They said a pest control contractor had been monitoring the Property and the boiler had been serviced. They said there had been no contact with the Respondent since the CMD other than between the Respondent and contractors.
8. The Respondent told the Tribunal that they had driven past the Property on 15 June 2026 and it still appeared to be occupied. They said that the Respondent is aged 62, lives in the Property alone and is not in employment. They said he receives universal credit which includes a housing element. They said the arrears are currently £10,320 and that aside from payments of £430 each made in September and October 2025, no rent had been paid since April 2024. They said they were not aware of the Respondent having any current health issues. The Applicant told the Tribunal that they do not own other rental properties and it is their intention to renovate and then move into the Property.

Findings in Fact

The Tribunal made the following findings in fact:

1. The Applicant and the Respondent entered into a Tenancy Agreement which commenced on 13 June 2019.
2. The Notice to Leave was served by recorded delivery post on 2 May 2025.
3. At the date of service of the Notice to Leave and the date of making the Application, the Respondent had been in rent arrears for three or more consecutive months.
4. Notification was provided to the Local Authority in terms of Section 11 of the Homelessness Etc. (Scotland) Act 2003 on 9 June 2025.

Findings in Fact and Law

1. It is reasonable to grant an order for possession of the Property.

Reasons for the Decision

9. The Tribunal determined to make an Order for possession of the Property in terms of Section 51 of the Act. In terms of section 51 of the Act, the First-tier Tribunal may issue an eviction order against the tenant under a private residential tenancy if, on an application by the landlord, it finds that one of the eviction grounds named in schedule 3 applies. In the Notice to Leave the Applicant stated that they sought recovery of possession of the Property on the basis set out in ground 12 which is that the tenant has been in rent arrears for three or more consecutive months. The Tribunal considered the statement of rent arrears provided and determined that ground 12 had been established.
10. At the CMD the Respondent had indicated that rent had been withheld due to the failure of the Applicant to carry out necessary repairs. The legislation which governs a landlord's obligation to repair is the Housing (Scotland) Act 2006 ("2006 Act"). Section 12 of the 2006 Act provides that the repairing standard applies to any house let for human habitation. Section 13 sets out the detail of the repairing standard. Section 14 provides that a landlord's duty is to ensure that the house meets the repairing standard at the start of the tenancy and at all times during the tenancy. It provides that the duty to maintain the house at all times during the tenancy applies only where the tenant notifies the landlord or the landlord otherwise becomes aware that work requires to be carried out for the purposes of complying with the repairing standard. Section 14 goes on to state that the landlord should carry out the required works within a reasonable time of the landlord being notified of the need to carry out repairs.

11. The Respondent did not lodge any evidence of the need for repairs being notified to the Applicant. After the CMD, the Applicant took steps to address the issues raised at the CMD. There was nothing before the Tribunal which indicated that the Applicant had failed to comply with the repairing obligations set out in the 2006 Act.

12. The Applicant carried out repairs at the Property in response to what the Respondent said at the CMD. Notwithstanding that, the Respondent has not made any payments towards the arrears which are now £10,320. Having considered all of the circumstances, and in the absence of a submission from the Respondent, the Tribunal determined that it was reasonable to issue an eviction order.

Decision

The Tribunal grants an order for possession of the Property.

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.
