Re: Property at 1A Lyneburn Crescent, Halbeath, Dunfermline, KY11 8DZ (“the Property”)

Parties:

Bank of Scotland PLC, The Mound, Edinburgh, EH1 1YZ (“the Applicant”)

Vikas Saini, 1A Lyneburn Crescent, Halbeath, Dunfermline, KY11 8DZ (“the Respondent”)

Tribunal Members:

Decision (in absence of the Respondent)

The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) (“the Tribunal”) determined that an order is granted against the Respondent for eviction of the Respondent from the Property under section 51 of the Private Housing (Tenancies) (Scotland) Act 2016, under ground 2 of schedule 3 to the said Act.

- Background

1. An application was submitted to the Tribunal under Rule 109 of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Housing and Property Chamber (Procedure) Regulations 2017 (“the Rules”). Said application sought a repossession order against the Respondent on the basis of the Applicant’s intention to sell the Property as creditor under a heritable security, being Ground 2 under Schedule 3 to the Private Housing (Tenancies) (Scotland) Act 2016 (“2016 Act”).

- Case Management Discussion

2. A Case Management Discussion (“CMD”) took place on 29 June 2026 by telephone call. The Applicant was represented by Ms Imrie of Aberdeen Considine, Solicitors. There was no appearance by or on behalf of the Respondent. The Tribunal was satisfied that the application had been intimated on the Respondent by way of Sheriff Officer on 28 May 2026 and that the Respondent had sufficient intimation of the date and time of the CMD. Accordingly, the Tribunal was satisfied that the CMD could proceed in the Respondent’s absence.
3. The Applicant’s representative moved for the Order to be granted as sought. The applicant was a creditor under a heritable security. The heritable proprietor of the Property was a landlord under a Private Residential Tenancy Agreement (“the Agreement”), dated 15 November 2024. The landlord had defaulted on his mortgage and the Applicant had called up the security and obtained Decree under the Conveyancing and Feudal Reform (Scotland) Act 1970 for possession of the Property and sale thereafter, dated 18 October 2023 at Dunfermline Sheriff Court under reference DNF-B422-23.
4. The Applicant intends to sell the Property and requires vacant possession in order to do so. A Notice to Leave had been served on the Respondent on the basis of Ground 2 of Schedule 3 to the 2016 Act, on 24 July 2025. The Respondent has been residing with another tenant who has their own separate tenancy agreement. A conjoined application seeking an order for repossession against the separate tenant was also considered by the tribunal at the CMD under case reference FTS/HPC/EV/25/5083. Following a recent Sheriff Officer visit to the Property it was reported that the Property continued to appear to be occupied. The Order is accordingly necessary.
5. The following documents were lodged alongside the application:
 - (i) Copy Private Residential Tenancy Agreement
 - (ii) Copy Notice to Leave
 - (iii) Proof of service of the Notice to Leave by recorded delivery
 - (iv) Section 11 notification to the local authority under the Homelessness etc. (Scotland) Act 2003
 - (v) Copy Extract Decree

- Findings in Fact

6. The Tribunal made the following findings in fact:
 - (i) The applicant is creditor under a heritable security secured against the Property;
 - (ii) The applicant has obtained Decree under the Conveyancing and Feudal Reform (Scotland) Act 1970 dated 18 October 2023 at Dunfermline Sheriff Court under reference DNF-B422-23;

- (iii) The heritable proprietor of the Property and the Respondent entered into a Private Residential Tenancy Agreement dated 15 November 2024;
- (iv) The Applicant is entitled to sell the Property;
- (v) The Applicant has served a Notice to Leave on the Respondent on the basis of Ground 2 of Schedule 3 to the 2016 Act;

- Reasons for Decision

7. The Tribunal was satisfied that the terms of Ground 2 of Schedule 3 to the 2016 Act had been met, namely that the Property is subject to a heritable security, that the Applicant intends to sell the property and is entitled to do so by virtue of the Extract Decree issued at Dunfermline Sheriff Court and dated 18 October 2023. The Tribunal is satisfied that the Applicant requires the tenant to leave the Property for the purpose of disposing of it with vacant possession. The Tribunal was satisfied that a Notice to Leave had been served on the Respondent and which specified ground 2, in accordance with the requirements of section 52 of the 2016 Act. The Respondent has not responded to the application served on them, nor submitted any defence to the application, nor set out any basis upon which it would not be reasonable to grant the order sought. The Tribunal is accordingly satisfied that it is reasonable to grant the order under the circumstances.

- Decision

8. The Tribunal granted an order against the Respondent for eviction of the Respondent from the Property under section 51 of the Private Housing (Tenancies) (Scotland) Act 2016, under ground 2 under schedule 3 to the Private Housing (Tenancies) (Scotland) Act 2016.

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.
