Decision

The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) ("the Tribunal") determined that the application should be dismissed on the basis that it is frivolous within the meaning of Rule 8(1)(a) of the Procedural Rules and that it would not be appropriate to accept the application in terms of Rule 8(1)(c).

Background

1. The application was received by the Tribunal under Rule 111 on 21 February 2020. The following documents were enclosed with the application:

- (i) Private Residential Tenancy Agreement (PRTA) commencing 25 July 2018;
- (ii) Notice to Leave dated 15 November 2019
- (iii) Section 11 Notice and email of 18 February 2020 serving same;
- (iv) Rent Statement.

2. The application was considered by the Tribunal and further information was requested by letter of 18 March 2020. The Applicant was asked to:

"Before a decision can be made, we need you to provide us with the following:

1. The property appears to be owned by Culmore Investments Ltd – not Culmore Investment company. Please advise if you wish to amend the applications to the correct name.

For the EV/20/0613 eviction case

2. Please provide details of how and when the Notice to leave was given to the Respondent, together with evidence of same.
3. Please provide evidence of the eviction ground, as required by Rule 109 of the Procedure Rules.

Please reply to this office with the necessary information by 1 April 2020. If we do not hear from you within this time, the President may decide to reject the application. “

3. No response was received. The Tribunal wrote to the Applicant again on 29 July 2020 requesting further information as follows:

“Please reply to this office with the necessary information by 12 August 2020. If we do not hear from you within this time, the President may decide to reject the application.”

4. No response was received.

Reasons for Decision

5. The Tribunal considered the application in terms of Rule 8 of the Chamber Procedural Rules. That Rule provides:-

"Rejection of application

8.-(1) The Chamber President or another member of the First-tier Tribunal under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, must reject an application if-

- (a) they consider that the application is frivolous or vexatious;·*
- (c) they have good reason to believe that it would not be appropriate to accept the application;*

(2) Where the Chamber President, or another member of the First-tier Tribunal, under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, makes a decision under paragraph (1) to reject an application the First-tier Tribunal must notify the applicant and the notification must state the reason for the decision."

6. 'Frivolous' in the context of legal proceedings is defined by Lord Justice Bingham in R v North West Suffolk (Mildenhall) Magistrates Court, (1998) Env. L.R. 9. At page 16, he states: - “What the expression means in this context is, in my view, that the court considers the application to be futile, misconceived, hopeless or academic”.

7. The Applicant had not confirmed the correct designation of the Applicant for the purposes of the application. The application could not proceed.

8. Applying the test identified by Lord Justice Bingham in the case of R v North West Suffolk (Mildenhall) Magistrates Court (cited above) the application is frivolous, misconceived and has no prospect of success. Furthermore, the Tribunal consider that there is good reason why the application should not be accepted. The application is accordingly rejected.

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.
