Decision (in absence of the Respondent)

The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) (“the Tribunal”) determined that

Background

This is an application for a payment order dated 9th April 2019 and brought in terms of Rule 111 (Application for civil proceedings in relation to a private residential tenancy) of The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Housing and Property Chamber (Procedure) Regulations 2017 as amended.

The Applicant originally sought in his application payment of arrears in rental payments of £1,050.00 as at the date of the application, but amended this figure to £1,750.00, which would be the sum due by the date of the Case Management Discussion, by e-mail to the Tribunal of 11th May 2019 which was intimated to the Respondent.

The Applicant provided with his application copies of the private residential tenancy agreement, and various correspondence.

The private residential tenancy agreement had been correctly and validly prepared in terms of the provisions of the Private Housing (Tenancies) (Scotland) Act 2016, and the procedures set out in that Act appeared to have been correctly followed and applied.

The Respondent had been validly served by sheriff officers with the notification, application, papers and guidance notes from the Tribunal on 8th May 2019, and I was provided with the execution of service.

Case Management Discussion

A Case Management Discussion was held on 10th June 2019 at Glasgow Tribunals Centre, 20 York Street, Glasgow. The Applicant did not appear, but was represented by his son, Mr Gary Paterson. The Respondent did not appear, nor was she represented. The Respondent had not responded to this application at any stage either in writing or by any other form of communication.

I was invited by Mr Paterson with reference to the application and papers to grant an order for payment of the sum of £1,750.00, which is the amount of rent arrears outstanding as at today's date. He confirmed that no further payments have been received from the Respondent since this application was lodged.

Monthly rent of £350.00 is due to be paid on the 6th day of each month in terms of clause 7 of the private residential tenancy agreement. No payment has been received from the Respondent in respect of the payments due on the 6th of January, February, March, April and May 2019.

Statement of Reasons

The jurisdiction of the Tribunal in relation to Private Residential Tenancies, such as that which applied to the Property, is set by statute. Section 71(1) of the Private Housing (Tenancies) (Scotland) Act 2016 provides:

"First-tier Tribunal's jurisdiction

- (1) In relation to civil proceedings arising from a private residential tenancy—
- (a) the First-tier Tribunal has whatever competence and jurisdiction a sheriff would have but for paragraph (b),
  - (b) a sheriff does not have competence or jurisdiction.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), civil proceedings are any proceedings other than—
- (a) the prosecution of a criminal offence,
  - (b) any proceedings related to such a prosecution."

The Tribunal accordingly has jurisdiction to hear civil proceedings arising from a private residential tenancy such as between the parties in this application.

The Tribunal considered the terms of the private residential tenancy agreement, the copy rent arrears statement provided, and the submissions made by Mr Paterson, and was satisfied that these disclosed an outstanding balance of rent arrears in the sum sought of £1,750.00.

Accordingly, the Tribunal shall make an order for payment of that sum.

Decision

In these circumstances, the Tribunal will make an order for payment by the Respondent to the Applicant of the sum of £1,750.00.

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.
