Decision with Statement of Reasons of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) under Section 16 of the Housing (Scotland Act) 2014

Chamber Ref: FTS/HPC/CV/18/2545

Re: Property at 33/4 Christian Crescent, Edinburgh, EH15 3AB (“the Property”)

Parties:

Mrs Jenifer Neilson, 49 Promenade, Portobello, Edinburgh, EH15 2BH (“the Applicant”)

Miss Nicolle McMahon, 33/4 Christian Crescent, Edinburgh, EH15 3AB (“the Respondent”)

Tribunal Members:

Decision (in absence of the Respondent)

The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) (“the Tribunal”) determined that

Background

By application dated 24 September 2018 the applicant applied to the First-tier Tribunal under Rule 70. The application was accompanied by a copy of a document titled Short Assured Tenancy Agreement dated 1 December 2014, a copy of the Section 11 Notice by Landlord of Proceedings for Possession, copy AT6, Certificate of Execution of Service of the AT6 upon the respondent dated 7 September 2018 and copy Rent Statement.

The Hearing

The applicant appeared herself. There was no appearance by or on behalf of the respondent. Papers have been served on the respondent by Sheriff Officers on 27 November 2018. No written representations were made by the respondent. The applicant advised that no further rent had been received by the applicant and the rent arrears were now £2750.00

Findings in Fact

1. The tenancy between the parties was constituted by Tenancy Agreement dated 1 December 2014. Rent arrears amounting to £1650.00 had accrued by the date of the Notice.
2. The respondent received all relevant paperwork which is in order.

Reasons for decision

The Respondent did not appear at the hearing. The tribunal accepted the evidence of the applicant of the arrears at the date of the application namely £1650.00. Although a further 2 months' rent was due by the date of the hearing no written intimation of this revised figure had been served on the Respondent. Accordingly the tribunal were of the view that the amount due required to remain as in the application.

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.
