Decision (in absence of the Respondent)

The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) (“the Tribunal”) determined that the Respondent be ordered to pay the Applicant the sum of £2550 in respect of rent arrears.

Background

This is an application for payment in respect of rent arrears under section 71(1) of the Act and Rule 111 of the Tribunal Procedure Rules.

The Tribunal had regard to the following documents:

1. Application received 20 September 2019;
2. Private Residential Tenancy Agreement (PRTA) commencing 1 February 2019;
3. Schedule of Rent Arrears as at 16 September 2019;
4. Sheriff Officer Certificate of Service of Case Management Discussion (CMD) Notification dated 18 November 2019.

CMD

The Applicant was represented by Ms Callander and its Solicitor, Mr Watt. The Respondent did not appear and was not represented.

The Tribunal was satisfied, under reference to the Sheriff Officer Certificate of Service, that the Respondent had received notification of the CMD and that the Tribunal could determine the matter in his absence provided that it was satisfied that it had sufficient information to do so and that the procedure had been fair.

The Tribunal considered the documentary evidence before it and made the following findings in fact:

1. The Parties entered into the PRTA commencing 1 February 2019;
2. The monthly rent was £425;
3. As at the date of the application the Respondent was in arrears of rent in the sum of £2550.00;
4. As at the date of the CMD the Respondent was £3855.60 in arrears.

The Tribunal was satisfied that the rent arrears were due, the procedure had been fair and that an order for payment should be made.

The Tribunal accordingly grant the order for payment.

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.
