Chamber Ref: FTS/HPC/CV/21/3080

Re: 44C Seaforth Road, Aberdeen, AB24 5PN ("the Property")

Parties

Mr Bailey Forbes (Applicant)

Miss Ashleigh Reid (Respondent)

Tribunal Member:

Alan Strain (Legal Member)

Decision

The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) ("the Tribunal") determined that the application should be dismissed on the basis that it is frivolous within the meaning of Rule 8(1)(a) of the Procedural Rules and that it would not be appropriate to accept the application in terms of Rule 8(1)(c).

Background

1. The application was received by the Tribunal under Rule 111 on 11 December 2021. The application was in respect of alleged rent arrears and damage to the Property.
2. The application was considered by the Tribunal on 21 December 2021. The Applicant was asked to confirm whether or not the Respondent occupied the Property under a Lodger's Agreement with him. The Applicant responded by email of the same date to confirm that she did. The Applicant also produced a copy of the Lodger's Agreement.

Reasons for Decision

3. The Tribunal considered the application in terms of Rule 8 of the Chamber Procedural Rules. That Rule provides:-

"Rejection of application

8.-(1) The Chamber President or another member of the First-tier Tribunal under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, must reject an application if-

*(a) they consider that the application is frivolous or vexatious;·
(c) they have good reason to believe that it would not be appropriate to accept the application;*

(2) Where the Chamber President, or another member of the First-tier Tribunal, under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, makes a decision under paragraph (1) to reject an application the First-tier Tribunal must notify the applicant and the notification must state the reason for the decision."

4. 'Frivolous' in the context of legal proceedings is defined by Lord Justice Bingham in R v North West Suffolk (Mildenhall) Magistrates Court, (1998) Env. L.R. 9. At page 16, he states: - "What the expression means in this context is, in my view, that the court considers the application to be futile, misconceived, hopeless or academic".

5. The application seeks to proceed under Rule 111. The Tribunal does not have jurisdiction in respect of Lodger's Agreement where the landlord occupies the same Property as the lodger. Schedule 1 paragraph 8 to the Private Housing (Tenancies) (Scotland) Act 2016 excludes this type of tenancy from the jurisdiction of the Tribunal.

6. Applying the test identified by Lord Justice Bingham in the case of R v North West Suffolk (Mildenhall) Magistrates Court (cited above) the application is frivolous, misconceived and has no prospect of success. Furthermore, the Tribunal consider that there is good reason why the application should not be accepted. The application is accordingly rejected.

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.
