The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) (“the Tribunal”) determined that

Background

This was an application for a payment order dated 22nd February 2023 and brought in terms of Rule 111 (Application for civil proceedings in relation to a private residential tenancy) of The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Housing and Property Chamber (Procedure) Regulations 2017 as amended.

The Applicant sought in its application payment of arrears in rental payments of £3,304.53 in relation to the Property from the Respondent, and provided with its application copies of the private residential tenancy agreement, bank statements, and rent arrears statement.

The private residential tenancy agreement had been correctly and validly prepared in terms of the provisions of the Private Housing (Tenancies) (Scotland) Act 2016, and the procedures set out in that Act appeared to have been correctly followed and applied.

The Respondent had been validly served by sheriff officers with the notification, application, papers and guidance notes from the Tribunal on 19th June 2023, and the Tribunal was provided with the execution of service.

Case Management Discussion

A Case Management Discussion was held at 14:00 on 25th July 2023 by Tele-Conference. The Applicant's Mrs Olga Rashevskaja participated, and the Applicant was not represented. The Respondent did not participate, nor was she represented. The Respondent has not responded to this application at any stage either in writing or by any other form of communication.

The Tribunal was satisfied that the requirements of giving notice had been duly complied with, and proceeded with the application in terms of Rules 17 and 29 of The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Housing and Property Chamber (Procedure) Regulations 2017 as amended.

Mrs Rashevskaja invited the Tribunal with reference to the application and papers to grant an order for payment of the sum of £3,304.53. She advised the Tribunal that arrears had increased to £7,242.03, but indicated that she did not intend to seek to amend the sum sought in this application.

Statement of Reasons

The jurisdiction of the Tribunal in relation to Private Residential Tenancies, such as that which applied to the Property, is set by statute. Section 71(1) of the Private Housing (Tenancies) (Scotland) Act 2016 provides:

"First-tier Tribunal's jurisdiction

- (1) In relation to civil proceedings arising from a private residential tenancy—
- (a) the First-tier Tribunal has whatever competence and jurisdiction a sheriff would have but for paragraph (b),
 - (b) a sheriff does not have competence or jurisdiction.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), civil proceedings are any proceedings other than—
- (a) the prosecution of a criminal offence,
 - (b) any proceedings related to such a prosecution."

The Tribunal accordingly has jurisdiction to hear civil proceedings arising from a private residential tenancy such as between the parties in this application.

The Tribunal considered the terms of the private residential tenancy agreement, the rent arrears information provided, and the submissions made by Mrs Rashevskaja, and was satisfied that these disclosed an outstanding balance of rent arrears due to the date of the application of £3,304.53. Rental of £750.00 per month was payable in advance in terms of clause 10 of the private residential tenancy agreement, together with a late payment charge in terms of clause 12 thereof. Accordingly, the Tribunal made an order for payment of that sum.

Decision

In these circumstances, the Tribunal made an order for payment by the Respondent to the Applicant of the sum of £3,304.53.

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.
