Decision

The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) (“the Tribunal”) granted an Order for Payment in the sum of £2,013.76.

1. This is an application under Rule 111 and Section 71 of the Private Housing (Scotland) Act 2016 for an Order for Payment in the sum of £2,813.76 representing rent arrears at the time of the application.
2. The Respondent is the tenant. He entered into a tenancy agreement on 5 May 2021. The tenancy agreement specifies that £425 is due in respect of rent each calendar month, payable in advance.
3. A two-member Case Management Discussion (CMD) took place at 1400 hrs on 12 June 2023 by teleconference. The Applicant failed to appear without excuse. The Respondent was represented by Ms Prochalska, from Shelter Scotland Housing Law Service. The Respondent was not present. We waited until 1415 hours before commencing the discussion to allow time for the Applicant to appear. No contact had been made by the conclusion of the discussion at 1430 hours. The application was continued to a hearing.

4. A hearing took place on 28 August 2023 by Videolink. The Applicant was assisted by her daughter and represented by Mr Lawson, Solicitor. The Respondent was not present. He was represented by Miss Prochalska, Solicitor.
5. The Parties have reached an agreement. The Respondent is no longer objecting to the granting of the Order for Possession on the basis that it will not be enforced by the Applicant as long as payments to rent and arrears are maintained by the Respondent as agreed.
6. The rent arrears currently stand at £2013.76. Agreement has been reached that the Respondent will pay £200 per month towards the arrears and meet his ongoing rent liability. The Respondent agrees that an Order for Payment should be made in the sum of £2,013.76 with time to pay at £200 per month.
7. Accordingly, an Order for Payment is granted.

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.
