Decision (in absence of the Respondent)

The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) ("the Tribunal") determined that an order for payment should be made.

Background

The Applicant sought an order for payment of rental arrears totalling £12,475.00. The Applicant had lodged with the Tribunal Form F. The documents produced were a Tenancy Agreement, a Notice to leave, served on 28 August 2020, together with a notice under s.11 of the Homelessness (Scotland) Act 2003. A copy land certificate was lodged with the Tribunal which showed that the applicant is the heritable proprietor of the Property.

Case Management Discussion

A case management discussion took place by telephone conference at 10am on 8 November 2021. The Applicant was represented by Ms J McLelland of Castle Residential, letting agents. The hearing was delayed to allow sufficient time for the respondent to participate, but there was no appearance by or on behalf of the Respondent.

Findings in Fact

The Tribunal made the following findings in fact:

1. The Applicant and the Respondent entered into a private residential tenancy Agreement for the Property dated 26 July 2019. The respondent took entry to the property on the same day.
2. The rent in terms of the Tenancy Agreement was £625.00 per month.
3. The respondent fell into arrears of rent soon after moving into the property. He has not paid any rental in the last 12 months. At the date the application was submitted there were arrears of rent totalling £12,475.00. At today's date there are arrears of rental totalling £13,100.00.
4. On 28 August 2020 the applicant served a notice to leave on the respondent in terms of s.50 of the Private Housing (Tenancies) (Scotland) Act 2016. On 17 August 2021, the applicant submitted an application to the tribunal.
5. The respondent offers no resistance to this application. Sheriff Officers served notice of this hearing on the respondent on 6 October 2021.
6. Relying on Rule 13(2)(a) of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Housing and Property Chamber (Procedure) Regulations 2017, the Applicant sought leave to amend the sum applied for by increasing the sum sought as arrears of rent to the correct figure of £13,100.00. That application is not opposed. The amendment of the sum sought is not a new matter and is simply a matter of arithmetic. The sum sought in this application is now a total of £13,100.00, which is the amount of arrears of rental at today's date.

Reasons for the Decision

The Tribunal determined to make an Order for payment of £13,100.00. Rent was lawfully due in terms of the Tenancy Agreement at the rate of £625.00 per month. The Respondent allowed rent arrears to accumulate by failing to make prompt and regular payments of the monthly rental due. At today's date, the Respondent owes the applicant £13,100.00 in arrears of rental, which is the sum due and resting owing to the applicant by the respondent.

Decision

For the foregoing reasons, the Tribunal determined to make an Order for payment.

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.

Where such an appeal is made, the effect of the decision and of any order is suspended until the appeal is abandoned or finally determined by the Upper Tribunal, and where the appeal is abandoned or finally determined by upholding the decision, the decision and any order will be treated as having effect from the day on which the appeal is abandoned or so determined.
