Decision

The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) (“the Tribunal”) determined to make an eviction order against the Respondent

Background

- 1 The Applicants applied to the Tribunal for an order for repossession against the Respondent under section 51 of the Private Housing (Tenancies) (Scotland) Act 2016 (“the 2016 Act”). In support of the application the Applicant provided the following documentation:-
 - (i) Copy Private Residential Tenancy Agreement between the parties dated 1st October 2020;
 - (ii) Notice to Leave dated stating that proceedings for possession will commence no earlier than 22 August 2021 and citing ground 1;
 - (iii) Notice under section 11 of the Homelessness (Scotland) Act 2003 to West Lothian Council;

- (iv) Copy Single Survey Report in respect of the property dated 9th October 2019;
- 2 The Tribunal was also in receipt of the Land Certificate for the property under Title Number WLN40943 which confirmed the registered owners as Thomas Brown and Tammy Wood.
 - 3 In response to a request from the Tribunal the Applicants subsequently provided copy correspondence from Brown and Co Properties as evidence of their intent to sell.
 - 4 By Notice of Acceptance of Application the Legal Member with delegated powers of the Chamber President intimated that there were no grounds on which to reject the application. A Case Management Discussion was therefore assigned for 29 October 2021, to take place by teleconference due to the restrictions imposed by the Covid-19 pandemic. A copy of the application paperwork together with notification of the date and time of the Case Management Discussion and instructions on how to join the teleconference was intimated to the Respondent by Sheriff Officers.

Case Management Discussion

- 5 The Case Management Discussion took place by teleconference on 29 October 2021. The Applicants and the Respondent were all present.
- 6 The Legal Member explained the purpose of the Case Management Discussion and the legal test that required to be satisfied. She then asked the Applicants and the Respondent to address her on their respective positions regarding the application. Mr Brown confirmed that he was content for Mrs Wood to speak on his behalf.
- 7 Mrs Wood confirmed that the Applicants were seeking an eviction order on the basis that they required to sell the property. She advised that they had not put the property on the market following advice and were waiting for vacant possession before doing so. She explained that she had been in touch with the local authority with a view to obtaining assistance for the Respondent. They had a good relationship and she wanted to help her if she could. The local authority had advised that they would not be able to provide accommodation options until such time as an order was granted by the Tribunal.
- 8 The Respondent advised the Tribunal that she was not contesting the application. She confirmed that she needed the outcome of the Tribunal proceedings in order to seek rehousing with the local authority. She advised that she would be in a position to remove from the property on a weeks notice, however the Tribunal clarified that in the event that the order was granted it would be approximately one month until it could be enforced. She confirmed that she resided in the property with her two young children aged 2 and 5.

Relevant Legislation

- 9 The legislation the Tribunal must apply in its determination of the application are the following provisions of the Private Housing Tenancies (Scotland) Act 2016, as amended by the Coronavirus (Scotland) Act 2020 and the Coronavirus (Scotland) Act 2020 (Eviction from Dwelling-houses) (Notice Periods) Modification Regulations 2020:-

1 - Meaning of private residential tenancy

1) A tenancy is a private residential tenancy where—

(a) the tenancy is one under which a property is let to an individual (“the tenant”) as a separate dwelling,

(b) the tenant occupies the property (or any part of it) as the tenant’s only or principal home, and

(c) the tenancy is not one which schedule 1 states cannot be a private residential tenancy.

(2) A tenancy which is a private residential tenancy does not cease to be one by reason only of the fact that subsection (1)(b) is no longer satisfied.

51 First-tier Tribunal’s power to issue an eviction order

(1) The First-tier Tribunal is to issue an eviction order against the tenant under a private residential tenancy if, on an application by the landlord, it finds that one of the eviction grounds named in schedule 3 applies.

(2) The provisions of schedule 3 stating the circumstances in which the Tribunal may find that an eviction ground applies are exhaustive of the circumstances in which the Tribunal is entitled to find that the ground in question applies.

(3) The Tribunal must state in an eviction order the eviction ground, or grounds, on the basis of which it is issuing the order.

(4) An eviction order brings a tenancy which is a private residential tenancy to an end on the day specified by the Tribunal in the order.

52 Applications for eviction orders and consideration of them

(1) In a case where two or more persons jointly are the landlord under a tenancy, an application for an eviction order may be made by any one of those persons.

(2) The Tribunal is not to entertain an application for an eviction order if it is made in breach of—

(a) subsection (3), or

(b) any of sections 54 to 56 (but see subsection (4)).

(3) An application for an eviction order against a tenant must be accompanied by a copy of a notice to leave which has been given to the tenant.

(4) Despite subsection (2)(b), the Tribunal may entertain an application made in breach of section 54 if the Tribunal considers that it is reasonable to do so.

(5) The Tribunal may not consider whether an eviction ground applies unless it is a ground which—

(a) is stated in the notice to leave accompanying the landlord's application in accordance with subsection (3), or

(b) has been included with the Tribunal's permission in the landlord's application as a stated basis on which an eviction order is sought.

54 Restriction on applying during the notice period

(1) A landlord may not make an application to the First-tier Tribunal for an eviction order against a tenant using a copy of a notice to leave until the expiry of the relevant period in relation to that notice.

(2) The relevant period in relation to a notice to leave—

(a) begins on the day the tenant receives the notice to leave from the landlord, and

(vii) that the let property or associated living accommodation is in multiple occupation and not licensed under Part 5 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2006, [ground 17] or

(b) the only eviction grounds stated in the notice to leave are—

Schedule 3, Part 1

1 Landlord intends to sell

(1) It is an eviction ground that the landlord intends to sell the let property.

(2) The First-tier Tribunal may find that the ground named by sub-paragraph (1) applies if the landlord—

(a) is entitled to sell the let property, and

(b) intends to sell it for market value, or at least put it up for sale, within 3 months of the tenant ceasing to occupy it, and

(c) the Tribunal is satisfied that it is reasonable to issue an eviction order on account of those facts.

(3) Evidence tending to show that the landlord has the intention mentioned in sub-paragraph (2)(b) includes (for example)—

(a) a letter of engagement from a solicitor or estate agent concerning the sale of the let property,

(b) a recently prepared document that anyone responsible for marketing the let property would be required to possess under section 98 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2006 were the property already on the market.

Findings in Fact and Law

- 10 The parties entered into a Private Residential Tenancy Agreement dated 1st October 2020.
- 11 The tenancy between the parties was a private residential tenancy as defined by section 1 of the 2016 Act.

- 12 On 19 February 2021 the Applicants delivered a Notice to Leave to the Respondent by email. The Notice to Leave cited ground 1 of Schedule 3 of the 2016 Act and confirmed that proceedings would not be raised any earlier than 22 August 2021.
- 13 The Notice to Leave is in the format prescribed by the Private Residential Tenancies (Prescribed Notices and Forms) (Scotland) Regulations 2017.
- 14 The Applicants are the registered owners of the property.
- 15 The Applicants therefore have title to sell the property.
- 16 The Applicant intends to sell the property within three months of the Respondent ceasing to occupy.
- 17 It is reasonable to make the order sought by the Applicants.
- 18 The provisions of ground 1 of Schedule 3 of the 2016 Act have been met.

Reasons for Decision

- 19 The Tribunal was satisfied at the Case Management Discussion that it had sufficient information upon which to make a decision and that to do so would not be prejudicial to the interests of the parties.
- 20 The application before the Tribunal was accompanied by a Notice to Leave which confirmed the Applicants' intention to rely upon ground 1 of Schedule 3 of the 2016 Act. The Notice to Leave had been sent to the Respondents on 19 February 2021 and confirmed that the earliest date on which proceedings would be raised would be 22 August 2021. The Tribunal was therefore satisfied that the six month period required under section 54 of the Act had been complied with.
- 21 The Tribunal was further satisfied on the basis of its findings in fact that the Applicants have title to sell the property and intend to do so within three months of the Respondent having vacated. The Tribunal accepted that their intention was genuine in this regard, based on the submissions made by Mrs Wood at the Case Management Discussion. The Tribunal therefore had to consider whether it was reasonable in the circumstances of the case to make the order, which required the Tribunal to balance the various facts and circumstances of the case in order to exercise its judicial discretion.
- 22 The Tribunal considered the fact that the Respondent had been given notice of the Applicant's intention to sell the property in February 2021 thereby giving her ample opportunity to obtain alternative accommodation. The Tribunal also took cognisance of the fact that she was actively seeking accommodation from the local authority, and the granting of the order would assist in that process. Whilst the Tribunal did have some concerns about the Respondent's young children, she had been clear in her submissions at the Case Management Discussion that she was not challenging the application. There was nothing before the Tribunal to contradict the position put forward by the Applicant.

- 23 The Tribunal therefore determined it would be reasonable to issue an eviction order in all the circumstances of the case and concluded that ground 1 had been met.

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.
