

Housing and Property Chamber
First-tier Tribunal for Scotland

DECISION AND STATEMENT OF REASONS OF ALASTAIR HOUSTON, LEGAL MEMBER OF THE FIRST-TIER TRIBUNAL WITH DELEGATED POWERS OF THE CHAMBER PRESIDENT

Under Rule 8 of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Housing and Property Chamber Rules of Procedure 2017 ("the Procedural Rules")

in connection with

Flat ½, 16 Green Street, Bothwell, G71 8RL ("the Property")

Case Reference: FTS/HPC/EV/19/1534

MR MARK TERRINGTON, MRS ALISON TERRINGTON ("the Applicants")

MR SCOTT CRAIG ("the Respondent")

1. The application was made under Rule 109 of the Chamber Procedural Rules being an application for an eviction order in respect of a Private Residential Tenancy.
2. On 4 June 2019, a request was sent to the Applicants' representative for further information including, amongst other things, a copy of the tenancy agreement and proof of service of the notice to leave. The Applicants' representative provided a copy of the agreement but did not provide proof of service of the notice to leave, instead providing an email which referred to service.
3. On 2 July 2019 a further request was sent to the Applicant for proof of service of the notice to leave. The request highlighted that, should no response be received by 16 July 2019, the application may be rejected. No response was received.

DECISION

4. The circumstances in which an application is to be rejected are governed by Rule 8 of the Chamber Procedural Rules. That Rule provides:-

"Rejection of application

8.—(1) The Chamber President or another member of the First-tier Tribunal under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, must reject an application if –

(a) they consider that the application is frivolous or vexatious;

(b) the dispute to which the application relates has been resolved;

(c) they have good reason to believe that it would not be appropriate to accept the application;

(d) they consider that the application is being made for a purpose other than a purpose specified in the application; or

(e) the applicant has previously made an identical or substantially similar application and in the opinion of the Chamber President or another member of the First-tier Tribunal, under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, there has been no significant change in any material considerations since the identical or substantially similar application was determined.

(2) Where the Chamber President, or another member of the First-tier Tribunal, under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, makes a decision under paragraph (1) to reject an application the First-tier Tribunal must notify the applicant and the notification must state the reason for the decision."

- 5. After consideration of the application, the further information referred to and correspondence from the Applicant, the Legal Member considers that the application should be rejected on the basis that it would not be appropriate to accept the application within the meaning of Rule 8(1)(c) of the Procedural Rules.

REASONS FOR DECISION

6. A request was made for further information from the Applicant, namely proof of service of the notice to leave. This was requested by the Tribunal to verify that the Respondent had been provided with the notice to leave and to allow the application to proceed. In the absence of any response by the Applicant, it would not be appropriate to accept the application.

What you should do now

If you accept the Legal Member's decision, there is no need to reply.

If you disagree with this decision:-

An applicant aggrieved by the decision of the Chamber President, or any Legal Member acting under delegated powers, may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them. Information about the appeal procedure can be forwarded to you on request.
