

Housing and Property Chamber
First-tier Tribunal for Scotland

---

Decision of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) under Section 26 of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Housing and Property Chamber Rules of Procedure 2017 ('The Procedure Rules) in relation to an application for extension of time limit to determine application for registration as a letting agent under Rule 93 of the Procedure Rules.

Chamber Ref: FTS/HPC/XA/19/3034

Parties:

The Scottish Government ("the Applicant")

Montana Management (Dundee) Limited ("the Respondent")

The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) ("the Tribunal")

Tribunal Member: Jacqui Taylor (Legal Member)

Background

1. The Applicant submitted an Application to the Tribunal under Tribunal Rule 93 for an extension of time to determine the Respondent's application for registration as a letting agent in terms of section 33(3) of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2014. The Application was dated 30th September 2019.

The Application stated:

'The application was made under section 32 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2014 and was received by the Scottish Ministers on 1 October 2018. Scottish Ministers must determine the application or apply for an extension to the time limit to determine the application on or before 30 September 2019.

The registration team began processing the application on 13 February 2019.

The application has taken some time to assess due to delayed responses from the Respondent. The Respondent has now provided some of the documents required by the Applicant, but more time is needed to fully assess these and ascertain whether more information is needed regarding the Respondent's compliance with the client money requirements of the Letting Agent Code of Practice, as set out in paragraphs 121, 122 and 126 of the Code of Practice.

The applicant therefore seeks an extension to the time limit to determine the Respondent's application to join the Scottish Letting Agent Register. This extension is to enable the Applicant to do the following:

- 1) To finish fully assessing the documents supplied by the Respondent and determine whether any further evidence or information is needed from the Respondent in order to determine their application.
- 2) To enable the Respondent to provide any further evidence required by the Applicant to confirm that they comply with the client money requirements of the Letting Agent Code of Practice, as set out in paragraphs 121, 122 and 126 of the Letting Agent Code of Practice and
- 3) To enable the Applicant to fully assess any additional documentation and information that may be provided by the Respondent in relation to the reasons above.

The Applicant seeks an extension to the time limit to determine the application for registration as a letting agent to the 30 March 2020.'

2. Decision

2.1. Requirements of Section 93 of the Procedure Rules.

In connection with the requirements of section 93 the Application correctly detailed the requirements of section (i),(ii), (iii) (iv) and (v) of section 93 the Procedure Rules namely:-

- (i) The address of the Scottish Ministers.
- (ii) The name and address and profession of the representative of the Scottish Ministers.
- (iii) The name, address and registration number of the Respondent.
- (iv) The reason why an extension is sought and
- (v) The date of receipt by the Scottish Ministers of the application under section 32 of the 2014 Act, namely 1st October 2018.

The Application had been signed and dated by Charlotte McHaffie, a representative of the Scottish Ministers, as required.

2.2 Requirements of section 33 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2014.

Section 33(2) of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2014 requires the Scottish Ministers to determine an application for registration of a Letting Agent within 12 months of receiving the application.

Section 33(3) of the said Act provides that the Scottish Ministers may apply to the First- tier Tribunal for an extension of the time limit by such period as the Tribunal thinks fit.

Section 33(4) of the said Act provides that the Tribunal may not extend a period unless the Scottish Ministers apply for the extension before the period expires.

The Scottish Ministers received the application on 1st October 2018. They submitted the application for extension to the First tier Tribunal on 30th September 2019 ('The Tribunal Application'). The Tribunal Application had been received timeously.

2.3 In terms of Tribunal Rule 18(1) the Tribunal may make a decision without a hearing where the facts are not disputed and to do so would not be contrary to the interests of the parties.

Tribunal Rule 18(2) provides that before making a decision under Tribunal Rule 18(1) the Tribunal must first consider any representations submitted by the parties.

The Tribunal issued a Direction to the parties dated 2nd October 2019 directing them to provide the Tribunal with written representations as to whether or not they would wish a hearing to be fixed.

The Applicants sent the Tribunal written representations on 18th October 2019 which confirmed that they are content that no hearing is fixed provided the Respondent is in agreement and the Tribunal is minded to grant the Application.

The Respondents sent the Tribunal a letter dated 18th October 2019 which confirmed that they support the application.

The Tribunal determine that a decision will be made without a hearing as the facts are not disputed and it is not contrary to the interests of the parties to do so.

The Tribunal determine that the time period for the Scottish Ministers to determine the application for registration of the Respondent as a Letting Agent under section 30 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2014 is extended to 30th March 2020.
