

Housing and Property Chamber
First-tier Tribunal for Scotland

Decision of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) under Section 26 of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Housing and Property Chamber Rules of Procedure 2017 ('The Procedure Rules) in relation to an application for extension of time limit to determine application for registration as a letting agent under Rule 93 of the Procedure Rules.

Chamber Ref: FTS/HPC/XA/19/3036

Parties:

The Scottish Government ("the Applicant")

Rivercity Properties ("the Respondent")

The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) ("the Tribunal")

Tribunal Member: Jacqui Taylor (Legal Member)

Background

1. The Applicant submitted an Application to the Tribunal under Tribunal Rule 93 for an extension of time to determine the Respondent's application for registration as a letting agent in terms of section 33(3) of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2014. The Application was dated 26th September 2019.

The Application stated:

'The application was made under section 32 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2014 and was received by the Scottish Ministers on 28 September 2018. The registration team began processing the application on 08 April 2019.

The Respondent has yet to provide confirmation that they have fully met the training requirements prescribed by Scottish Ministers in the Scottish Letting Agent Registration (Scotland) Regulations 2016.

The Respondent also needs to provide written confirmation that they hold a client account which complies with paragraph 122 of the letting agent code of practice.

The Applicant seeks an extension to the time limit to determine the Respondent's application to join the Scottish Letting Agent Register. This extension is to enable the Respondent to do the following:

Tribunal on 26th September 2019 ('The Tribunal Application'). The Tribunal Application had been received timeously.

3.3 In terms of Tribunal Rule 18(1) the Tribunal may make a decision without a hearing where the facts are not disputed and to do so would not be contrary to the interests of the parties.

Tribunal Rule 18(2) provides that before making a decision under Tribunal Rule 18(1) the Tribunal must first consider any representations submitted by the parties.

The Tribunal issued a Direction to the parties dated 2nd October 2019 directing them to provide the Tribunal with written representations as to whether or not they would wish a hearing to be fixed.

The Applicants sent the Tribunal written representations on 18th October 2019 which confirmed that they are content that no hearing is fixed provided the Respondent is in agreement and the Tribunal is minded to grant the Application.

The Respondents did not lodge any written representations in response to the Tribunal's Direction and consequently the Tribunal consider that the Respondents do not object to the Tribunal making a decision on the Application without a hearing. The Tribunal determine that a decision will be made without a hearing as the facts are not disputed and it is not contrary to the interests of the parties to do so.

The Tribunal determine that the time period for the Scottish Ministers to determine the application for registration of the Respondent as a Letting Agent under section 30 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2014 is extended to 30th March 2020 as the Respondent agrees with the Application and it is in the Respondent's interest for the Application to be granted.
