Chamber Ref: FTS/HPC/PR/21/2325

Re: 2/1, 9 Maxwellton Street, Paisley, PA1 2TZ ("the Property")

Parties

Mr Mateusz Szramke (Applicant)
Mr Matthew Ferguson (Respondent)

Tribunal Member:

Alan Strain (Legal Member)

Decision

The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) ("the Tribunal") determined that the application should be dismissed on the basis that it is frivolous within the meaning of Rule 8(1)(a) of the Procedural Rules and that it would not be appropriate to accept the application in terms of Rule 8(1)(c).

Background

1. The application was received by the Tribunal under Rule 80 on 23 September 2021. This application has been registered under Rule 80 – Application to adjust recoverable rent.
2. The tribunal requested information from the Applicant on 20th October, 19th November and 23 December 2021. No response was received.
3. Rule 80 provides:

Application to adjust recoverable rent

80. Where a landlord or tenant makes an application under section 31(2) (adjustment, with respect to services and furniture, of recoverable rent for statutory periods before registration) of the 1984 Act, the application must—

(a) state—

(i) the name, address and registration number (if any) of the landlord;

(ii) the name, address and profession of any representative of the landlord;

(iii) the name and address of the tenant; and

(iv) the name, address and profession of any representative of the tenant;

(b) be accompanied by a copy of the tenancy agreement (if available) or, if this is not available, as much information about the tenancy as the landlord or tenant can give; and

(c) be signed and dated by the landlord or tenant or a representative of the landlord or tenant.

Reasons for Decision

4. The Tribunal considered the application in terms of Rule 8 of the Chamber Procedural Rules. That Rule provides:-

"Rejection of application

8.-(1) The Chamber President or another member of the First-tier Tribunal under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, must reject an application if-

(a) they consider that the application is frivolous or vexatious;·
(c) they have good reason to believe that it would not be appropriate to accept the application;

(2) Where the Chamber President, or another member of the First-tier Tribunal, under the delegated powers of the Chamber President, makes a decision under paragraph (1) to reject an application the First-tier Tribunal must notify the applicant and the notification must state the reason for the decision."

5. 'Frivolous' in the context of legal proceedings is defined by Lord Justice Bingham in R v North West Suffolk (Mildenhall) Magistrates Court, (1998) Env. L.R. 9. At page 16, he states: - "What the expression means in this context is, in my view, that the court considers the application to be futile, misconceived, hopeless or academic".

6. The application seeks to proceed under Rule 80. The application concerns unpaid rent and an eviction order. Nowhere in the application does the Applicant mention that he seeks to adjust recoverable rent. The Tribunal cannot grant any order under Rule 80 on the facts stated.

7. Applying the test identified by Lord Justice Bingham in the case of R v North West Suffolk (Mildenhall) Magistrates Court (cited above) the application is frivolous, misconceived and has no prospect of success. Furthermore, the Tribunal consider that there is good reason why the application should not be accepted. The application is accordingly rejected.

Right of Appeal

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.
