We will store and process the information you provide in line with data protection law. You have the right to ask to see information we have about you and to challenge how we process your personal data. Processing of your information in relation to an application is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest in terms of Article 6 1(e) of the UK General Data Protection Regulation¹.

In order to process your complaint, the Chamber may need to contact other relevant organisations (for example the Local Authority) and we may need to obtain reports from relevant specialists. Further information on the organisations that may be contacted with details of your application is available on our website. In terms of the legislation² which governs the application process, we will send copies of any application, attachments, correspondence and representations to the other parties and their representatives. We cannot progress your application without doing this.

Please note also that legislation³ requires the Chamber to make any tribunal decisions and statements of reasons publicly available. Further information on how the administration processes personal data and on your rights can be found on the SCTS website⁴.

Where a party, a representative or an interested party provides an email address, the First-tier Tribunal will communicate using that address until the party, representative or interested party requests that another method of communication be used.
