2. In accordance with s 19(3) of the 2011 Act, having been satisfied that the Factor has failed to carry out the property factor duties, the Tribunal must make a Property Factor Enforcement Order. Before making an Order, to comply with s 19(2) of the Act, the Tribunal before proposing an Order must give notice of the proposal to the factor and must allow the parties an opportunity to give representations to the Tribunal in relation to this Notice and the proposed Order only.
3. The intimation of this Notice of Property Factor Enforcement Order to the parties should be taken as notice for the purposes of section 19(2)(a) and the parties are hereby given notice that they should ensure that any written representations which they wish to make under s 19(2)(b) must reach the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) by no later than 14 days after the date the decision and this Notice is intimated to them.

4. If no representations are received within that timescale, then the Tribunal will proceed to make a PFEO in the following terms without seeking further representations from the parties.
5. Therefore, the Tribunal proposes to make the following PFEO:

Within 28 days of the communication of the PFEO to the Factor, the Factor must:

- (i) Provide a written apology from the Factor's CEO addressed to the Homeowner acknowledging the poor service which the Homeowner received in respect of the matters referred to in the Tribunal's decision.
- (ii) Provide a written statement to the Homeowner furnishing an explanation to him regarding tender procedures applied by the Factor and providing detailed assurance that the shortcomings identified by the Tribunal in its decision will not be repeated in respect to tender processes conducted by it in the future.
- (iii) Pay compensation to the Homeowner in the sum of £500 (Five Hundred Pounds) in respect of the time and inconvenience to the Homeowner occasioned by the Factor's failure to comply with its factor duties under the Code.
- (iv) Provide documentary evidence of compliance to the Tribunal with the above Order within 7 days of having done so.

Failure to comply with a PFEO has serious consequences and may constitute a criminal offence.

Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal.
