The Tribunal rejects the application by the applicant dated 1st March 2022, being an application under section 17(1) of the Property Factors (Scotland) Act 2011. The Tribunal sent the Applicant an email dated 23rd March 2022 which requested further information to enable the application to be processed and asked that the requested information be provided by 20th April 2022. The Applicant asked the Tribunal to grant more time to provide the required information. On 7th April 2022 the Tribunal extended the time limit to provide the information to 4th May 2022. The requested information has not been provided. Accordingly the Tribunal have good reason to believe that it would not be appropriate to accept the application and reject the application in terms of rule 8 (1)(c) of the Tribunal Rules.

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them
