Tribunal Member: Jacqui Taylor (Legal Member)

The Tribunal rejects the application by the applicant dated 27th June 2021, being an application under section 17(1) of the Property Factors (Scotland) Act 2011. The Tribunal sent the applicant emails dated 29th September 2021 and 26th October 2021 which requested further information to enable the application to be processed. The applicant replied by email dated 1st November 2021 but did not provide all of the information that had been requested. The Tribunal sent the applicant a reminder by email dated 12th November 2021 and asked that the requested information be provided by 10th December 2021. The Tribunal sent the applicant a further reminder dated 13th December 2021 and asked that the requested information be provided by 20th December 2021. The applicant has not responded to the two emails dated 12th November 2021 and 13th December 2021 and the requested information has not been provided.

Accordingly the Tribunal have good reason to believe that it would not be appropriate to accept the application and reject the application in terms of rule 8 (1)(c) of the Tribunal Rules.

In terms of Section 46 of the Tribunal (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them
