Emma Hunter, 0/1, 6 second Avenue, Clydebank G81 3AA ("Tenant")

Vijay Kamal Gindha, AVG Homes, 279 Castlemilk Road, Rutherglen, Glasgow G44 4LE ("Landlord")

Tribunal Members :

Joan Devine (Legal Member); Nick Allan (Ordinary Member)

NOTICE TO: Vijay Kamal Gindh ("the Landlord")

Whereas in terms of its decision dated 16 November 2022, the Tribunal determined that the Landlord had failed to comply with the duty imposed on them by Section 14(1)(b) of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2006, and in particular that the Landlord has failed to ensure that the Property meets the repairing standard in that the Property is not wind and watertight and in all other respects reasonably fit for human habitation and does not meet the tolerable standard.

The Tribunal now requires the Landlord to carry out such works as are necessary for the purpose of ensuring that the Property meets the repairing standard and that any damage caused by the carrying out of any work in terms of this order is made good before the date specified in this order.

In particular the Tribunal requires the Landlord to :

- 1. Appoint a Chartered Building Surveyor to undertake an inspection of the property and to produce (a) a report on the cause of the dampness issues in the Hall, Lounge and Bedroom and (b) a list of specified works to be undertaken to resolve the dampness issues within the Property and (c) to provide the Tribunal with a copy of the complete report.
- 2. Appoint a suitably qualified contractor to undertake all works recommended by the Building Surveyor, and to make good all plaster walls ceilings and any woodwork affected by damp and mould; including all necessary redecoration.

The Tribunal orders that the works specified in this order must be carried out and completed within the period of 10 weeks from the date of service of this notice.

A landlord, tenant or third party applicant aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.

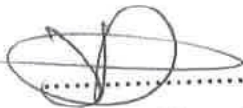

In terms of Section 63 of the Act, where such an appeal is made, the effect of the decision and of any order is suspended until the appeal is abandoned or finally determined by the Upper Tribunal, and where the appeal is abandoned or finally determined by upholding the decision, the decision and any order will be treated as having effect from the day on which the appeal is abandoned or so determined.

Please note that in terms of section 28(1) of the Act, a landlord who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with a RSEO commits an offence liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale. A landlord (and that includes any landlord's successor in title) also commits an offence if he or she enters into a tenancy or occupancy arrangement in relation to a house at any time during which a RSEO has effect in relation to the house. This is in terms of Section 28(5) of the Act.
