Notice to Landlord .

Salah Alkirwi and Linda Alkirwi residing at 23 Earls Hill, Balloch, Cumbernauld G68 9ET and trading as Earls Homes, 47 Main Street, Cumbernauld, G67 2RT

Whereas in terms of its decision dated 29 November 2021, the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland determined in terms of Section 25 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2006 to allow further time to comply with the Repairing Standard Enforcement Order (the RSEO) now varies the RSEO as follows:-

The Landlord must on or before 31 December 2021:-

1. With regard to the report on the Property dated 14 June 2021 prepared by by Curol Limited of 38 Avon Street, Larkhall ML9 1AT, continue to complete all works recommended in that report to ensure that the dampness in the Property is eradicated and that the Property is made wind and watertight throughout, is in a reasonable state of repair and meets the tolerable standard;
2. Repair or replace the defective flooring in all three the bedrooms of the Property to a safe and satisfactory standard, free of tripping hazards;

KM

3. Eradicate dampness in areas identified in the course of the recent re-inspection by the tribunal, including lower hallway, bedroom three or northmost
4. Eradicate timber decay and replace the decayed timber skirting in the main bedroom and the lower hallway of the Property and

5. Make good all décor damaged as a result of these works.

Note to Landlord:-

In terms of section 46 of the Tribunals (Scotland) Act 2014, a party aggrieved by the decision of the tribunal may appeal to the Upper Tribunal for Scotland on a point of law only. Before an appeal can be made to the Upper Tribunal, the party must first seek permission to appeal from the First-tier Tribunal. That party must seek permission to appeal within 30 days of the date the decision was sent to them.

Where such an appeal is made, the effect of the decision and of any order is suspended until the appeal is abandoned or finally determined by the Upper Tribunal, and where the appeal is abandoned or finally determined by upholding the decision, the decision and any order will be treated as having effect from the day on which the appeal is abandoned or so determined.

Further, in terms of Section 28(1) of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2006, a landlord who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with a Repairing Standard Enforcement Order commits an offence liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding Level 3 of the standard scale, and in terms of Section 28(5) of that Act, also commits an offence if he or she enters into a tenancy or occupancy agreement in relation to a house at any time during which a Repairing Standard Enforcement Order has effect in relation to the house.

In Witness Whereof these presents printed on this and the two preceding pages are subscribed by Karen Moore, Chairperson of the tribunal, at Glasgow on 29 November 2021 before this witness Norman William Moore, solicitor of 1A, Muirfield Place, Cumbernauld.
