NOTICE TO

David Rollo c/o, Martin & Co, 59-61 Academy Street, Inverness, 1V1 1LU

The Private Rented Housing Committee having accepted the Landlord's application to have The Repairing Standard Enforcement Order varied to allow additional time for completion of the outstanding works. The Private Rented Housing Committee determined that The Repairing Standard Enforcement Order is VARIED with effect from the date of service of this Notice to the effect that the period allowed for the completion of the works is extended to 31st January 2016.

Subsection 25(3) of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2006 does apply in this case.

A landlord or a tenant aggrieved by this decision of the Private Rented Housing Committee may appeal to the Sheriff by summary application within 21 days of being notified of that decision.

Where such an appeal is made, the effect of the variation is suspended until the appeal is abandoned or finally determined, and where the appeal is abandoned or finally determined by confirming the decision, the variation will be treated as having effect from the day on which the appeal is abandoned or so determined.

Statement relative to the Notice of the decision to Vary

The Repairing Standard Enforcement Order

Ordered by the Private Rented Housing Committee

Re: 1D Bruce Avenue, Inverness, IV3 5HA being part of the subjects described in and disposed by Feu Disposition by Inverness District Council in favour of David Rollo recorded GRS (Inverness) 25th January 1995 ('the Property')

The Parties:-

Ms Teresa Kobylska residing formerly at 1D Bruce Avenue, Inverness, IV3 5HA ('The Tenant')

David Rollo c/o, Martin & Co, 59-61 Academy Street, Inverness, 1V1 1LU ('The Landlord')

Case Ref No: PRHP/RP/15/0096

Decision

The Committee, having made such enquiries as it saw fit for the purposes of determining whether the Repairing Standard Enforcement Order relative to the Property should be varied in terms of Section 25 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2006 agreed that the RSEO should be varied.

- (1) The RSEO relative to the Property required the Landlord to :
 1. Repair the living room door by installing a latch to the door and strike plate to the frame to enable the door to close properly.
 2. Repair or replace the telephone entry apparatus to render it in proper working order.

The RSEO specified that these works must be carried out and completed by 14th July 2015.
- (2) The Committee members were Jacqui Taylor (Chairperson) and Sara Hesp (surveyor member).
- (3) On 8th October 2015 the Committee extended the time for completion of the works to 14th December 2015.
- (4) The Landlord's agents requested a further extension by email dated 17th December 2015. They explained that their electrician had ordered replacement parts for the entry phone system but they would not be available until after the New Year.

Decision

- (5) The Committee agreed to vary the RSEO to allow the Landlord additional time to complete the outstanding works as the Tenant had vacated the Property and the work was in hand.

- (6) The Committee proceeded to vary the Repairing Standard Enforcement Order in terms of section 25 by extending the time for the outstanding works to be completed to 31st January 2016.
- (7) The decision of the Committee was unanimous.

Right of Appeal

- (8) A landlord or tenant aggrieved by the decision of the Private Rented Housing committee may appeal to the Sheriff by summary application within 21 days of being notified of that decision.

Effect of section 63

- (9) Where such an appeal is made, the effect of the decision and of the order is suspended until the appeal is abandoned or finally determined, and where the appeal is abandoned or finally determined by confirming the decision, the decision and the order will be treated as having effect from the day on which the appeal is abandoned or so determined
