DETERMINATION BY PRIVATE RENTED HOUSING COMMITTEE

STATEMENT OF DECISION OF THE PRIVATE RENTED HOUSING COMMITTEE
UNDER SECTION 25(1)
OF THE HOUSING (SCOTLAND) ACT 2006

In connection with

Property at 64 Columba Crescent, Forgewood, Motherwell ML1 3YE (hereinafter referred to as “the House”)

Douglas McCallum, 64 Columba Crescent, Forgewood, Motherwell ML1 3YE (hereinafter referred to as “the Tenant”)

Shabir Latif, 12 Woodvale Road, Radcliffe, Manchester M26 1UA (hereinafter referred to as “the Landlord”)

DECISION

The Committee decided to vary the Repairing Standard Enforcement Order dated 15 July 2015 (“the Order”) by extending the period for compliance with the Order by 21 days from the date of intimation of this decision.

The Committee comprised the following members:

John McHugh, Chairperson
Ian Mowatt, Surveyor Member

Reasons for the Decision

On 31 August 2015, the Surveyor Member of the Committee re-inspected the House and found that the works required by the Order had not been performed.

The Committee considered the information supplied by the parties regarding the attempts to perform the works. There had been difficulty in gaining access to the House to perform the works. Additionally, there had been no gas supply because of a lack of credit in the gas meter which created a delay in the boiler being inspected.

Having regard to: the remaining works required; the potential for further disputes/difficulties between the parties regarding access; and the terms of section 25(1), we consider that the variation of the Order to provide a further 21 days for compliance is reasonable.

In the event that the Committee determines at the end of the 21 day period that the works required by the Order have not been completed, it will then consider, on the available evidence, the reason for any such non-compliance and the degree to which the Landlord or Tenant are responsible for same. The Committee hereby gives the parties warning that it is likely to revoke the Order in the event that the available evidence tends to show that the Tenant has been responsible for the Landlord's inability to complete the works. In the event that the available evidence shows that the Landlord has failed to make reasonable efforts to perform the works, the Committee is likely to make a finding that the Landlord has failed to comply with the Order. The parties are therefore advised that they will be expected to be able to produce evidence of: the making of appointments to carry out works and the grant or refusal of access.

Decision

The Committee, considering the terms of section 25(1) of the Act, determined that the Order should be varied by extending the period for compliance with the Order by a further 21 days.

The decision of the Committee was unanimous.

Right of Appeal

Section 64 of the Act provides a right of appeal to a landlord or tenant aggrieved by a decision of a private rented housing committee. An appeal may be made to the Sheriff within 21 days of the Landlord or Tenant being informed of the decision.

Where such an appeal is made, the effect of the decision and the order is suspended until the appeal is abandoned or finally determined, and where the appeal is abandoned or finally determined by confirming the decision, the decision and the order will be treated as having effect from the day on which the appeal is abandoned or so determined.
